

Franks Daily Journal February 22,2025

You're asking me to break down the opening prayer section of your journal entry into smaller, more distinct phrases or sentences. I understand. Here's that section broken down, trying to keep the original wording as much as possible:

Saturday, February 22nd, 2025

God, today I thank you. And I praise you. I praise you for all you're doing in my life. And I praise you for what you're doing in the lives of those I care about. Father God, I lift up those who just need a touch from you today. God, please let us be changed into your image. Your image, which is love. Thank you for this past week.

Thank you specifically for a good birthday for my mother. Thank you for a good report from the doctor. Thank you for a good audit. God, moving forward, please help me to be more focused. Help me to stay organized. Help me to stay focused on doing things according to your word.

Help me to put you first in everything I do. I know that if I put you first, everything will turn out good. I thank you ahead of time for changing me into the image that you want me to be.
